

psw contents

14 cover
story

10

20

22

news

- 06 "Typical teenagers" treated as criminals just because they're in care
- 07 Reforms are a long way from addressing social work's problems
- 08 Why Baroness Butler-Sloss is spot on about adoption
- 09 BASW's concern at Baby Peter case appeal court ruling
- 17 Council leader suggests more, not fewer, social workers could be the answer to balancing the budget
- 18 The final session of the APPG inquiry hears how a medical focus forces mental health social work into the shade

features

- 14 Who do we think we are?
What the Census for England and Wales tells us about society and the shifting nature of the people who rely on social work services
- 19 World Social Work Day – the UK story
A round-up of BASW's four UK events, including SASW's prestigious annual awards for social work excellence
- 22 No dinner parties or luvvies but the employer isn't bad
An insight into how the Borough of Islington Council secured an award for being the best employer of social workers in England

viewpoint

- 10 Speaking out
Your letters on social work, social care and recent PSW content
- 13 The Surgery
How mediation can stop a drama becoming a crisis
- 25 The Chief
Bridget Robb describes BASW's current work, its structure and how this compares with one notable rival organisation

at the back

- 26 media watch
PSW's regular media observer casts a critical eye over the BBC's controversial fly-on-the-wall documentary, People Like Us
- 27 independent thinking
Continuing to highlight the injustice of ISW fee capping
- 28 reviews
Social care books assessed by social workers
- 31 uk reports
Round-ups from BASW staff all over the UK
- 34 diary dates
Upcoming events and useful contacts at BASW