

20 cover story

psw contents

07

13

16

News

- 06 BASW responds to 'bleak' forecast for social work
- 07 Troubled Families tsar courts controversy with "collusion" claim
PLUS Comprehensive Spending Review sparks fresh concerns
- 08 SASW's warning over community justice reform in Scotland
- 09 Plans for Welsh Social Work College questioned
PLUS Social workers now being asked to do home safety checks
- 11 Minister outlines 'Made in Wales' agenda as blueprint for UK
- 19 Burnout – Northern Ireland study shows how to build resilience
- 22 Four-page round-up from BASW's Annual Conference & AGM

Features

- 16 Is there really no substitute for abstinence?
Former drug addict says the only way to quit is to quit, while a substance abuse charity warns against a one-size-fits-all approach
- 20 The highs, lows and potential of ASYE
A look at England's ASYE programme, nearly one year on
- 28 'Crushed' by having my child taken into care
Two mothers talk candidly about what it feels like to have a child taken into care by social workers

32 Service users and a history of being ignored

Peter Beresford explores the history of user involvement – or a lack of – in developing social work services

Viewpoint

- 14 Speaking Out
Two pages of your letters on social work and recent PSW content
- 27 The Chief
Bridget Robb considers the way forward for BASW and the wider social work profession at a time when austerity is holding sway
- 30 Learning how to learn
Dr Neil Thompson outlines the benefits of workplace learning

At the back

- 31 Media watch
PSW's regular media observer casts an eye on TV with a conscience
- 35 Independent thinking
Why you might want to join a BASW virtual learning network
- 36 Reviews
Social care books assessed by social workers
- 39 UK reports
Round-ups from BASW staff all over the UK