

psw contents

14 cover story

06

11

22

News

- 06 BASW urges Chief Social Workers to work closely together
- 07 Concern at unrealistic timescale for Frontline's fast-track "high fliers"
- 08 National Adoption Service for Wales gets cautious welcome
PLUS College funding debate at BASW's AGM on 27 June
- 09 SASW's concern at barring all prisoners from independence vote
- 11 A grim vision of longer commutes and more clients
PLUS Danger of 'Nasty little snitches' slur on whistleblowers
- 13 BASW England Conference: Why we need to prove the effectiveness of mental health social work practice

Features

- 14 Dressed to impress
What social workers choose to wear and why. PSW finds out whether it even matters.
- 20 Forced into history
The need for social workers to spot the signs of forced marriage in the face of figures suggesting it happens 8,000 times a year
- 22 Fixing broken families in post-Soviet Russia
The efforts underway in Russia to end the emphasis on vast orphanages and instead develop fostering and adoption capacity

Viewpoint

- 17 The Surgery
Advice on how to deal with workplace restructuring
- 19 The Q&A
Former nurse Tess Brockbank on why she switched to working with older adults
- 25 The Chief
Bridget Robb on BASW's Derby Day and the role of social workers in supporting vulnerable service users facing benefit cuts

At the back

- 26 Media watch
PSW's regular media observer casts an eye on TV with a conscience
- 27 Independent thinking
The full range of BASW Independents' benefits you may not have been aware you can access
- 28 Reviews
Social care books assessed by social workers
- 31 UK reports
Round-ups from BASW staff all over the UK
- 34 Diary dates
Upcoming events and useful contacts at BASW