

psw contents

14 cover
story

08

13

09

news

- 06 Northern Ireland minister to meet NIASW over bureaucracy survey
- 07 New cuts “fly in face” of ministerial rhetoric on better safeguarding
- 08 Why budget hotel staff need training to spot signs of exploitation
- 09 Journalists and social workers unite on joint NI media guidance
- 10 Second MP-led social work inquiry hears first hand concerns about the risks of fast-track adoption assessments
- 13 Tory website jibes on “Marxist training” rebuffed by academics features

- 14 The dog that needs to bark
How social workers can bypass managerialist constraints to ensure service users are still able to access the support they need
- 20 Living with the past
A care leaver on the duty of adults who have been through the system to help shape a better model for looked after children
- 22 Two steps forward, two steps back
The patchy progress on implementing the reform recommendations of the Social Work Task Force three years ago

viewpoint

- 17 The Q&A
Cafcass social worker Darren Jackson answers the questions
- 19 The Chief
BASW's acting chief executive Bridget Robb on poverty and equality, and social work's place in supporting people in need
- 25 The Guest
Joan Rapaport on the role of ‘action research’ in addressing longstanding social work dilemmas at the back

- 27 independent thinking
Who gains from a CRB system that imposes notable costs and frustrating delays on independent social workers and others?
- 28 reviews
Social care books assessed by social workers
- 30 uk reports
Round-ups from BASW staff all over the UK
- 34 diary dates
Social care and social work events, plus useful contacts