

psw contents

17-22 cover
story

news

- 06 Review of child deaths in Northern Ireland highlights how social workers are “overwhelmed” and in need of support
- 07 “Unelected, unaccountable” College criticism after new TCSW Chair suggests ongoing subsidy and defends elections process
- 08 Obsessing over adoption is not the best way to support families
- 09 Social workers should have spoken out at Mid Staffs scandal
- 11 Cautious welcome for still very costly care cap plan
- 12 APPG inquiry hears hospital social workers express fears over welfare of “lost” patients

features

- 14 A serious case for review
The implications for case reviews from an ongoing row in Northern Ireland over freedom of information versus data protection
- 18 Another world, another way
Insight into social work and social issues in India
- 24 Can you be a Tory and a social worker?
Does holding right-wing views and values make any difference to someone’s ability to practise social work in the current climate?

viewpoint

- 13 The Surgery
Advice on what to do if you face bullying in the workplace
- 17 The Chief
Bridget Robb urges practitioners to talk about their profession
- 21 Social work in Kuwait
The emergence of woman in society since the 1990 Gulf War
- 23 The Q&A
Pauline Ross on life as a social worker with transplant patients at the back

- 26 media watch
PSW’s regular media observer casts an eye over Coronation Street
- 27 independent thinking
Working across borders after the advent of the HCPC
- 28 reviews
Social care books assessed by social workers
- 30 uk reports
Round-ups from BASW staff all over the UK
- 34 diary dates