

psw contents

14 cover story

news

- 06 BASW freezes subscription fees as membership passes 15,000
- 07 Birmingham children's services in "last chance saloon"
- 08 Spanish social work leader explains the profession's contribution after Santiago de Compostela train disaster
- 09 BASW and NSPCC poll reveals need for more online abuse training
- 11 How recipients of grants from the Social Workers' Educational Trust have used the money to boost their CPD

features

- 14 The real frontline
The role of social work in supporting the increasing numbers of UK soldiers returning from conflict zones overseas
- 20 Making a necessity out of virtue
The work of a thinktank trying to promote societal virtue and good character in public life
- 22 Life in the shadows
Labour's shadow children's minister Lisa Nandy tells PSW about how education has marginalised the social agenda

viewpoint

- 13 Home truths about child protection
Following convictions in the Daniel Pelka case, Jim Wild argues the need for actors to be used in child protection training
- 16 Speaking out
Your letters on social work, social care and recent PSW content
- 19 Dementia's not the problem – we are
The need to rethink how we interact with people with dementia
- 25 The Chief Exec
Bridget Robb urges social workers to help take control of their own destiny and stop being dictated to by others

at the back

- 26 Media watch
- 27 Independent thinking
- 28 Reviews
- 31 UK reports
- 34 Diary dates